Full reports from each of the Sections were in the Report & Accounts. The Group had celebrated its 100th anniversary last year. New trustees had joined the Board and a new Scout Troop had started. There were currently 135 members. All this was possible because of the volunteers.

The Group had received approximately £31,900 during the past year and spent approximately £33,600, resulting in £1,700 payments over receipts which was largely due to the Centenary Camp and Remembrance Sunday celebrations.
